DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-6,8 are allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It still is not clear what is being positively claimed in this claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pearce, Tamura et al, or Bladykas. See paper number 5 for this rejection.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 7/28/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The 35 USC 112 rejection remains appropriate because of the claim format. The preamble of the claim is 'A loading assistance device...., said loading assistance device comprising'. By using this format, the apparatus prior to the comprising clause is not being positively claimed i.e. the grinding chamber is not being claimed. And if the chamber is not being claimed, how can the smaller end of the device extend through it as set forth in lines 7-8? With the chamber not being positively claimed, the 35 USC 102 rejection also remains proper since all of the references use stationary, frustoconical hoppers. The fact that the prior art chambers do not rotate is irrelevant since applicant is not claiming the chamber.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
